TRUST DEEDS!

MAURY INSTITUTE,

HOLLY SPRINGS, MISS.

This boarding and day school for Girls, opened September, 1882, in the family of Judge J. W. C. Watson, is under the management of his daughter, Miss Cors E. Carey. Judge Watson, stamily consists of himself, wie and daughter. There are five thoroughly competent, experienced and faithful teachers, whose system of instruction is after the most modern and advanced methods. The Schoel and Lodging-rooms are commodious, well ventilated, and well turnished, and accommodiations in all respects first-class.

The number of Boarding Scholars is limited to eighteen; and of pupils, boarders, included, to fifty. There being a teacher to every eight or ten pupils is an advantage to the school which can scarcely be overestimated.

There are now three vacancies in the boarding department, but Mrs. Carey, who resides near the school buildings, and whose family consists of herself and two daughters, both of whom are pupils of the Institute, will receive as many as four boarders at school rates.

The last twenty-weeks term of the present session commences Wednesday, February 2d, 1887, and pupils can be advantageously entered at any time before that date.

Terms reasonable. For particulars, apply to Judge Watson, or either of the Principals.
